ARTICLE I - RECOGNITION

(ARTICLE APPLIES TO OPERATORS AND CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES)

- A. The Employer recognizes the Union as the appropriate collective bargaining representative for coach operators, van operators, and customer service representatives working in classifications listed in Appendix A of this Agreement.

Van Operator shall be defined as those employees operating vehicles less than 25 feet in length and having a passenger seating capacity of 19 or less; provided however, it is agreed that the 25 feet in vehicle length refers to the dimensions of the body design of the vehicle exclusive of bumpers; and that in the interests of safety, vehicle protection devices (for example Help bumpers) may be installed by the Employer as long as the body design does not exceed 25 feet in length.

- B. It is further agreed that supervisors and confidential employees are specifically excluded. Supervisory personnel will not perform bargaining unit work when bargaining unit employees are available; provided however, it is understood that the supervisory personnel of the Customer Services Division will perform bargaining unit work. The Employer agrees not to use supervisory personnel for the purpose of avoiding overtime costs.
- C. The Employer agrees to meet and deal with the duly accredited representatives of the Union on all questions arising between the Employer and the Union.
- D. The Union agrees to notify the Employer in writing of the duly accredited representatives and committees representing the Union immediately upon their election or appointment to such offices.

ARTICLE II - UNION SECURITY

(ARTICLE APPLIES TO OPERATORS AND CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES)

- A. All employees within the scope of this Agreement shall become members of the Union within thirty (30) days from the date of certification of successful completion of training and shall remain members in good standing as a condition of continued employment with the Employer. The Employer agrees to provide each new employee with written notice of the provisions of this Section of the Agreement within five (5) days from the date of certification and further, to furnish a copy of such written notice to the Union.

Any such employee shall pay an amount equal to regular union dues and initiation fee to a non religious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by such employee and the Union. The employee shall furnish written proof to the Union that such payment has been made. If the employee and the Union do not reach agreement on the recipient of this payment, the Department of Labor and Industries shall designate the charitable organization.

- 2. An employee shall retain any available sick leave hours and available vacation leave hours the employee had on record with the Employer at the commencement of the leave of absence; provided however, the employee shall not accrue sick leave hours or vacation leave hours during the leave of absence period.

In such cases, such leave of absence may be designated as paid leave when agreement is made in cases where the Employer is reimbursed monthly by the Union and/or the employee for salary, retirement contributions, and any other related costs incurred by the Employer. It is understood that the Employer shall not make nor be held liable for any portion of the allowed contributions.
- 4. If permitted by the Employer's insurance carrier, the Union and/or the employee shall be allowed to pay the premium cost for health related insurance coverage in accordance with the insurance carrier's rules and regulations; provided however,

These transmittals shall occur semi-monthly or monthly and shall be accompanied by a list of the names of those employees for whom such deductions have been made and the amount deducted for each such employee.

ARTICLE VI - STRIKES AND WORK ACTIONS

(ARTICLE APPLIES TO OPERATORS AND CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES)

There shall be no strikes, work stoppages, slowdowns, picketing, lockouts, or any other restriction of work during the term of this Agreement.

The Union recognizes and agrees that disciplinary action, including discharge, may be taken by the Employer at its discretion against any employee or employees engaged in a violation of this Article. Such disciplinary action may be undertaken selectively at the option of the Employer and shall not preclude or restrict recourse to any other remedies which may be available to the Employer.

ARTICLE VII - RIGHTS OF THE PARTIES

(ARTICLE APPLIES TO OPERATORS AND CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES)

- A. Except as otherwise expressly and specifically limited by the terms of this Agreement, the Employer retains all its customary, usual and exclusive rights, decision making prerogatives, functions, and authority connected with or in any way incidental to its responsibility to manage the affairs of INTERCITY TRANSIT or any part of INTERCITY TRANSIT. The Employer retains all prerogatives, functions, and rights not specifically limited by the terms of this Agreement.

The Employer shall have no obligation to negotiate with the Union with respect to any such subjects or the exercise of its discretion and decision making with regard thereto, any subjects covered by the terms of this Agreement and closed to further negotiations for the terms hereof, and any subject which was or might have been raised in the course of collective bargaining, but is closed for the term hereof.

- B. Without limitation, but by way of illustration, the exclusive prerogatives, functions, and rights of the Employer shall include the following:
1. To direct and supervise all operations, functions, and policies of INTERCITY TRANSIT in which the employees in the bargaining unit are employed.
 2. To close or liquidate an office, branch, operation or facility or combine the work of divisions, offices, branches, operations or facilities for budgetary or other reasons.
 3. To determine the need for a reduction or an increase in the work force and the implementation of any decision with regards thereto.
 4. To establish, revise, and implement standards for hiring, classifications, promotion, quality of work, safety, materials, equipment, uniforms, appearance, methods and procedures. It is jointly recognized that the Employer must retain broad authority to fulfill and implement its responsibilities and may do so by oral or written work rule, existing or future.
 5. To implement new, and to revise or discharge, wholly or in part, old methods, procedures, materials, equipment, facilities, and standards.
 6. To create shifts, workdays, and hours of work and work locations.
 7. To designate and to assign all work duties.
 8. To introduce new and revise existing duties within the unit.

 10. To discipline, suspend, demote, or discharge an employee.
 11. To determine the need for additional educational courses, training programs, on-the-job training, and cross-training and to assign employees to such duties for periods to be determined by the Employer.
- C. The rights of employees in the bargaining unit and the Union hereunder are limited to those set forth in this Agreement.
- D. The exercise of any management prerogative, function, or right which is not specifically modified by this Agreement is not subject to the grievance procedure, to arbitration, or, as set forth above, to bargaining during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

(ARTICLE APPLIES TO OPERATORS AND CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES)

- A. Purpose: The purpose of this procedure is to provide an orderly method for resolving grievances. A determined effort shall be made to settle any such differences at the lowest possible level in the grievance procedure, and there shall be no suspension of work or interference with the operations of the Employer.

Prior to formal grievance procedures starting, the Employer and the Union will meet to define the issue under question and by sharing information and joint fact finding, attempt to resolve the issue. This guideline will be used at each level of the formal grievance.

- B. Time Limits: Any and all time limits specified in the grievance procedure may be waived by written mutual agreement of the parties.

Failure of the employee or the Union to submit the grievance in accordance with the time limits specified without such waiver shall constitute abandonment of the grievance. If the Employer fails to meet or answer the grievance in accordance with the time limits specified without such waiver the grievance shall immediately advance to the next step in the grievance process.

A grievance may be terminated at any time upon receipt of a signed statement from the Union or the employee stating that the matter has been resolved.

- C. Definition and Steps: For the purpose of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as only those disputes involving the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of any provision of this Agreement. Grievances shall be processed in accordance with the following procedures within the stated time limits.

STEP 1: Department Director

In the event of any dispute or grievance involving the true interpretation of this Agreement, the matter shall first be submitted in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days of the occurrence of the event which gives rise to the grievance by the individual affected or through their Shop Steward, to the employee's department director, or the director's designee.

The employee's department director, or the director's designee, shall attempt to satisfactorily settle the grievance within ten (10) calendar days from the date of receipt of the employee's Step 1 grievance. No grievance shall be settled without the knowledge of the Shop Steward.

Step 1 will include the following:

- a. statement of the grievance and relevant facts;
- b. the specific provision(s) of the Agreement violated; and
- c. the remedy sought.

STEP 2: General Manager

In the event the grievance cannot be settled at the Step 1 level as defined above, it shall be submitted in writing within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the department director's, or the director's designee's, Step 1 reply, by the Shop Steward to the Employer's General Manager and the Business Agent of the Union.

The written submission of a Step 2 grievance shall include the reasons for dissatisfaction with the department director's, or the director's designee's, solution.

The Employer's General Manager shall attempt to satisfactorily settle the grievance within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of receipt of the Step 2 grievance. The General Manager and the Union Representative will try to jointly agree to settle or abandon the grievance at this step. If no agreement is reached they will decide whether to submit the grievance to mediation or formal arbitration as defined below.

PERC MEDIATION SERVICES: In the event the grievance is not settled at the Step 2 level as defined above, the written grievance may be submitted to mediation through the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of receipt of the Step 2 response. Both the Employer and the Union must agree to utilize PERC mediation services. If there is no agreement, either party may submit the grievance to arbitration in accordance with Step 3 as defined below.

In the event the grievance is submitted to mediation and the recommendations of the mediator are not acceptable to either party, either party may request arbitration in accordance with Step 3 as defined below.

STEP 3: Board of Arbitration

In the event that such dispute cannot be settled at the Step 2 level as defined above, the written grievance shall be submitted to a Board of Arbitration to be selected as follows:

- a. The party demanding arbitration of the question or questions in dispute shall request the same in writing and name their arbitrator by the thirtieth (30th) calendar day after receipt of the written grievance by the General Manager. The other party shall within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of such request, name its arbitrator and notify the party demanding arbitration of its selection in writing. The two thus selected shall have a period of fifteen (15) calendar days in which to try to settle the dispute.

In the event that the two arbitrators are unable to agree upon a mutually satisfactory adjustment within that period, they shall try to agree upon a third arbitrator. In the event of a disagreement and a selection not being made within fifteen (15) calendar days, such third arbitrator shall be selected by said arbitrators by process of elimination from a list of nine (9) submitted by the Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, Washington, DC.

If one party requests arbitration, as herein provided, and the other party fails or refuses to name its arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days as herein provided, it shall forfeit its case and the demands of the other party requesting arbitration shall be deemed to have been granted.

- b. It shall be the function of the Board to hold a hearing at which the parties may submit their cases concerning the grievance. The hearing shall be kept private, and shall include only such parties in interest and/or designated representatives. The Board shall render its decision within thirty (30) calendar days after such hearing. The power of the Board shall be limited to interpreting this Agreement and determining if the disputed Article or portion thereof has been violated.

The Board shall have no authority to alter, modify, vacate or amend any terms of this Agreement or to substitute its judgment on a matter or condition for that of the Employer where the Employer has not negotiated and limited its authority on the matter or a majority thereof, within these stated limits shall be final and binding upon the parties to the grievance provided the decision does not involve action by the Employer beyond its jurisdiction.

Neither the Board nor any other person or persons involved in the grievance procedure shall have the power to negotiate new agreements or to change any of the present provisions of this Agreement.

- c. Each party shall bear the expense of its own arbitrator and all costs of preparing and presenting its own case, including compensating its own representatives and witnesses. The fees and expenses of the third arbitrator and the proceedings shall be borne equally by the parties. If either party desires a record of the proceedings, it shall solely bear the cost of such record.
- d. No issue whatsoever shall be arbitrated or subject to arbitration unless such issue results from an action or occurrence which takes place following the execution date of this Agreement, and no arbitration determination or award shall be made by the Board which grants any right or relief for any period of time whatsoever prior to the execution date of this Agreement.

In case of a grievance involving any continuing or other money claim against the Employer, no award shall be made by the Board which shall allow any alleged accruals prior to the date when such grievance shall have first been presented.

- e. It is specifically and expressly understood and agreed that taking a grievance appeal to arbitration constitutes an election of remedies and a waiver of any and all rights by the appealing employee, the Union, and all persons it represents to litigate or otherwise contest the appealed subject matter in any court or other available forum. Likewise, litigation or other contest of the subject matter in any court or other available forum shall constitute an election of remedies and a waiver of the right to arbitrate the matter.

- f. In the event the Board finds that it has no authority or power to rule in the case, the matter shall be referred back to the parties without decision or recommendation on the merits of the case.

ARTICLE IX - DISCIPLINE

(ARTICLE APPLIES TO OPERATORS AND CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES)

Definitions: Active for Work

For purposes of this Article "active for work" is defined as: All paid time being credited towards the specified period of time with the following exceptions:

1. Sick leave used to supplement a medical leave without pay beyond ten (10) consecutive calendar days will NOT be considered active for work.
2. Sick leave used to supplement an on-the-job injury beyond ten (10) consecutive calendar days will NOT be considered active for work.
3. Leave of absence without pay beyond ten (10) consecutive calendar days will NOT be considered active for work.
4. Time off from work due to an on the job injury will NOT be considered active for work.

A. Determining Level of Discipline

The Employer will determine the level of discipline for violations of Intercity Transit Policy.

B. Initiating Discipline

When the Employer is made aware of an incident or infraction that may result in an assessment of discipline, the Employer will do one of the following within fifteen (15) calendar days when the employee is "active for work":

1. Discipline the employee for the incident or infraction; OR
2. Notify the employee in writing that the incident or infraction is being investigated and could result in disciplinary action upon completion of the Employer's investigation.

The fifteen (15) calendar day time limit will not include any time the employee is not available for work due to sick leave (paid or unpaid), vacation leave, or floating holiday leave.

C. Scheduling Union Representation at Discipline Meetings

When a meeting with an employee has been requested by the Employer, and where there may be discipline involved, it is agreed that it is the responsibility of the affected employee to request representation from their Shop Steward. If a Shop Steward is requested, the meeting will be scheduled for the next day, if necessary. If relief is required, it is the responsibility of the Shop Steward to request time-off.

D. Changing Disciplinary Status

~~The employee's disciplinary status at the Written Warning level can be changed by both the passage of time and whether the employee commits additional violations. In imposing a Written Warning, all violations and discipline steps prior to the Written Warning must occur in a twelve (12) month period when the employee was "active for work". Any Written Warning issued will remain in effect for twelve (12) months when the employee is "active for work", with the exception noted below pertaining to Late Reports.~~

~~If an employee does NOT commit another violation during the twelve (12) month Written Warning period when the employee is "active for work", the employee will no longer be in a disciplinary status and the disciplinary documentation will be retired from the employee's personnel file. If the employee commits another violation, the employee may be placed in the next level of discipline. The employee will remain in that category of discipline for twelve (12) months when the employee is "active for work" unless the next level of discipline resulted in termination.~~

~~If an employee does NOT commit another violation during the twelve (12) month period at the next level of discipline above the Written Warning, the employee will no longer be in a disciplinary status and the disciplinary documentation will be retired from the employee's personnel file. If the employee commits another violation, the employee may be placed in the next level of discipline which may include dismissal. However, with regard to discipline for an employee's traffic safety record, the Employer may take into account violations that occurred within the preceding thirty-six (36) months when the employee was "active for work".~~

The employee's disciplinary status at the Written Warning level and above can be changed by both the passage of time and whether the employee commits additional violations.

Disciplinary Practice Specific To Category A and B Violations

Any Category A or B violation issued, which does not result in the employee's termination, will remain in effect for twelve (12) months when the employee is "active for work."

If the employee does NOT commit another violation during the twelve (12) month period, the employee will no longer be in a disciplinary status and the disciplinary documentation will be retired from the employee's personnel file. If the employee commits another violation, the employee may be placed in the next level of discipline which may include dismissal. The employee will remain in that category of discipline for twelve (12) months when the employee is “active for work” unless the next level of discipline resulted in termination. However, with regard to discipline for an employee’s traffic safety record, the Employer may take into account violations that occurred within the preceding thirty-six (36) months when the employee is “active for work.”

Disciplinary Practice Specific to ~~Late Reports~~ Category C Violations

1. Operators:

In imposing a Written Warning, all violations and discipline steps prior to the Written Warning must occur in a twelve (12) month period when the employee is “active for work.” A Written Warning will remain in effect as long as there are three (3) infractions within the previous twelve (12) months when the employee was “active for work.” When there are fewer than three (3) infractions within the previous (12) months when the employee was “active for work,” the disciplinary status will revert to the next lower discipline status.

If the employee commits another violation during the Written Warning period, the employee will be placed in the next level of discipline. The employee will remain in that category of discipline for twelve (12) months when the employee is “active for work” unless the next level of discipline resulted in termination.

2. Customer Service Representative:

The Employer and the Union agree that the Attendance/Late Report Policy signed on ~~April 24, 1998~~ November 30, 1999 will remain in effect for Customer Service Representatives.

E. Employee Mandatory Assessment

When an employee receives a Category A or B discipline which does not result in the employee’s termination, OR when the employee receives a Category C Decision-Making Leave discipline, the employee will be required to attend and participate in a mandatory assessment. The assessment provider (the Employer’s medical representative or employee assistance representative) will be paid for and determined by the Employer.

An employee may also be required to attend and participate in a mandatory assessment at lower levels of discipline provided the Employer and the Union agree to the employee’s attendance.

FE.Reviewing Disciplines on File

An employee has the right to review both the personnel file maintained by Human Resources and the working file maintained by his/her Department.

GF.Appealing Discipline

An employee at the Written Warning level may request a review hearing by the General Manager. Written Warnings can be grieved up to, but excluding mediation and arbitration.

An employee cannot be disciplined without cause. An Employee may appeal his/her suspension or dismissal through the grievance procedure. For purposes of this Article, "Decision-Making Leave" is considered a form of suspension.

An employee serving in their initial probationary period may be dismissed within the probationary period with NO appeal of the dismissal. It is understood however, that a probationary employee has all right to the grievance procedure for all other actions. Probationary employees may request union representation at a dismissal hearing.

COACH AND VAN OPERATOR

A. PROBATION AND RECLASSIFICATION

An employee shall serve an initial probationary period consisting of six (6) consecutive months. The employee shall be off probation on the first day of the first pay period following the completion of the six (6) month period.

Reclassification: In regards to a regular change in classification from Van Operator to Coach Operator or Coach Operator to Van Operator, or in regards to a temporary change in classification from a Coach Operator to a Van Operator, the following shall be understood:

1. In order to volunteer for reclassification from Van Operator to Coach Operator, the employee must be in active work status.
2. If the Employer reclassifies a Van Operator to the status of a Coach Operator, the employee shall serve a Coach Operator probationary period as defined above, provided however, if the employee has already served a six (6) month probationary period as a Van Operator, the employee shall only be required to serve a three (3) month probationary evaluation period as a Coach Operator and the employee's evaluation period will end ~~will be off probation~~ on the first day of the first pay period following the completion of the three (3) month evaluation period.

~~Van Operators who volunteer for reclassification to Coach Operator may not elect to reclassify to their prior Van Operator status after the completion of the (3) month probation~~

A Van Operator who volunteers for reclassification to a Coach Operator position may not elect to reclassify to their prior operator status if they have completed the first three (3) months of their probationary period or their three (3) month evaluation period.

The Employer has the right to return an employee to his/her operator position anytime during the six (6) month probationary period or the three (3) month evaluation period if the Employer determines the employee's performance is unsatisfactory.

3. If the Employer reclassifies a Coach Operator to the status of a Van Operator, and the operator has not already served the Van Operator probationary period, the employee shall serve a Van Operator ~~probationary~~ evaluation period. ~~as defined above, provided however,~~ If the employee has already served a six (6) month probationary period as a Coach Operator, the employee shall only be required to serve a three (3) month ~~probationary~~ evaluation period as a Van Operator and the employee's evaluation period will end ~~will be off probation~~ on the first day of the first pay period following the completion of the three (3) month period. The requirement for a probationary period does not apply if the reclassification takes place due to a reduction in force.
4. The Employer may not require, except when a reduction in force requires such reclassification, an employee to accept a reclassification, from Van Operator to Coach Operator or from Coach Operator to Van Operator, unless the employee is in agreement with the reclassification.
5. When an employee receives a reclassification from Van Operator to Coach Operator, the employee will be placed in the Coach Operator wage schedule at the wage rate higher, but closest to, their current Van Operator wage rate. The employee's anniversary date for future Coach Operator wage rate increases will be based on the employee's anniversary date as a Van Operator. Any changes in reclassification, from Van Operator to Coach Operator or from Coach Operator to Van Operator, will not change the employee's beginning date of accrual for vacation leave, sick leave, or floating holiday leave.
6. Coach Operators temporarily assigned to van services will be paid per the provisions of the wage rates in Appendix A for Coach Operator classifications. Van Operators will be utilized for all van service work including overtime prior to assigning van service work to any Coach Operator.
7. Van Operators who volunteer for reclassification to Coach Operator, accept the reclassification, enter coach training and then decide to reclassify to Van Operator, will have to wait two years from that decision date before they can volunteer for reclassification to Coach Operator.

B. SENIORITY

1. There shall be two types of seniority:
 - a. Seniority for purposes of layoff and recall shall be determined by the date of hire. All applications for employment shall be time/date annotated upon receipt. The chronological order of applications will determine the seniority order for employees hired on the same day.

- b. Seniority for purposes of bidding shall be determined by the length of service the employee has in his/her job classification.
2. New employees will be assigned the next open seniority number in their job classification (Coach, Van) upon start of training and will retain this ranking throughout their term of employment in this job.
3. When employees change classification, they will assume the next open seniority number in their new classification. They will retain their date of hire as an operator for the purpose of determining reduction in force or recall to work. Coach Operators who reclassify to Van Operators under the provisions of A.7. above, will return to their previous seniority.
4. An employee shall lose all seniority credit in the event of voluntary or involuntary termination.
5. An employee shall accrue seniority for job bidding purposes for any authorized leave of absence without pay other than medical leave, provided such leave of absence does not exceed sixty (60) calendar days.
6. An employee shall accrue seniority for any authorized medical leave of absence without pay provided such leave of absence does not exceed twelve (12) calendar months.
7. It is understood that employees accepting non-represented positions with the Employer will be considered non-represented employees and will be subject to all of the Employer's employment rules and regulations as addressed in the Employer's Personnel Policy Manual.

The employee may leave the non-represented position and return to their bargaining unit position under the following conditions:

- a. During the first three (3) months of probation in the non-represented position the employee may voluntarily elect to return to their bargaining unit position without loss of seniority for the position previously occupied; provided the employee has not violated the Employer's rules and regulations as addressed in the Employer's Personnel Policy Manual.
- b. After completion of the first (3) three months of probation in the non-represented position but prior to the end of the probationary period, the employee may not elect to return to their bargaining unit position.
- c. After completion of the first (3) three months of probation in the non-represented position the Employer may return the employee to the employee's former bargaining unit position. If the employee returns during the non-represented probation period as defined in the Employer's Personnel Policy Manual, the employee will not lose seniority for the bargaining unit position previously occupied.

- d. Any Employee returning to the bargaining unit after the non-represented probation period will assume the position of least seniority in their former classification.

C. REDUCTION IN FORCE

1. When forces are reduced, employees will be laid off in the inverse order of their date of hire. Employees having the same date of hire will be laid off in the inverse order of their bidding seniority that was in effect at the time their initial probationary period was completed. The Employer agrees to consult with the Union prior to any layoffs.
 - a. If the reduction in force requires that the number of coach operators be reduced, the employees laid off will be based on date of hire and coach operators may be required to return to a van assignment. Coach operators who return to a van assignment will maintain their coach wage rate at the time of the reassignment. The wage rate will stay at that level until the van wage rate catches up to their wage rate. The coach operator returned to a van assignment will return to a seniority position based upon their date of hire as an operator.
 - b. If coach operators are the employees with least seniority and are laid off, and additional coach operators are needed, the van operators will be given an opportunity in seniority order to volunteer for promotion to coach operator status. If an inadequate number of van operators volunteer for the coach positions, van operators will be assigned to coach status in reverse seniority order.
2. Employees shall be recalled in the reverse order of layoff as provided in Item 1. above and provided that the employee can do the available work. Employees reentering their job classification will suffer no penalty in bid seniority due to a reduction in force. Employees who had previously completed a probationary period will not be required to complete a new probationary period.

Coach operators who are required to return to a van assignment must return to coach work when it is available. Refusal to return to a coach assignment will result in a change in wage rate to the van rate based on their length of service. Recalled employees will suffer no bid seniority penalties upon recall.

3. Notice of recall shall be sent to the employee at their last known address by registered mail. If any employee fails to report for work within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of mailing the notice of recall, they shall be considered to have quit, shall cease to have seniority, and shall have their name removed from the recall list.

However, if an employee's failure to report for work is on account of illness or injury, they may retain their seniority and recall rights if they have notified the Employer by registered mail and such notification is received prior to the deadline for their reporting to work. It is recognized that the Employer may require substantiation of the illness or injury. If the substantiation is not submitted promptly to the Employer, and if it is not to the satisfaction of the Employer, the loss of seniority and recall rights shall stand.

Recall rights for any employee shall expire eighteen (18) months ~~one (1) year~~ from the date of layoff. Written notice of expiration of recall rights shall be sent to the employee at their last known address by registered or certified mail.

It shall be the responsibility of the Employer to maintain the recall list. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address.

4. Benefits shall not accrue during layoff.
5. Nothing in this Article or any part of this Agreement is intended to restrict the sole authority of the Employer to determine the financial necessity of service reduction, the form of the reduction, and the duration of the layoff.

ARTICLE X: CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE

An operator who volunteers for reclassification to a Customer Service Representative position may not elect to reclassify to their prior operator status if they have completed the first three (3) months of their probationary period or their three (3) month evaluation period.

- d. Operators reclassified to the position of Customer Service Representative may return to their Operator position in accordance with Section 2 below.

The employee may leave the non-represented position and return to their bargaining unit position under the following conditions:

B. SENIORITY

1. Seniority for purposes of work shift and vacation bidding shall be determined by the length of service the employee has in the Customer Service Division. New employees will be assigned the next open seniority number upon start of training and will retain this ranking throughout their term of employment in this job.
2. Seniority for a Customer Service Representative position (lead and non-lead classification) shall be defined by the length of continuous service as a Customer Service Representative and be determined by the date upon which the employee became classified as a Customer Service Representative.

3. In the event that the Employer hires more than one Lead Customer Service Representative, the Lead Customer Service Representatives will have separate work shifts from the other Customer Service Representatives. Seniority for bidding on these shifts will be based on length of service as a Lead Customer Service Representative.
4. When employees change classification, they will assume the next open seniority number in their new classification but will retain their original date of hire position date in the division for the purpose of determining reduction in force or recall to work.
5. Seniority for purposes of layoff and recall shall be determined by the date of hire in the Customer Service Division. All applications for employment shall be time/date annotated upon receipt. The chronological order of applications will determine the seniority order for employees hired on the same day.
6. An employee shall lose all seniority credit in the event of voluntary or involuntary termination.
7. An employee shall accrue seniority for job bidding purposes for any authorized leave of absence without pay other than medical leave, provided such leave of absence does not exceed sixty (60) calendar days.

C. REDUCTION IN FORCE

1. When forces are reduced, employees will be laid off in the inverse order of their date of hire within the Customer Service Division. Employees having the same date of hire will be laid off in the inverse order of their bidding seniority that was in effect at the time their initial probationary period was completed. The Employer agrees to consult with the Union prior to any layoffs. An employee who came from the operator ranks to Customer Service may return to the operator ranks if a position is available but would not retain their seniority rights after the initial three (3) month evaluation period ~~beyond probation.~~
2. Employees shall be recalled in the reverse order of layoff as provided in Item 1. above and provided that the employee can do the available work.
3. Notice of recall shall be sent to the employee at their last known address by registered mail. If any employee fails to report for work within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of mailing the notice of recall, they shall be considered to have quit, shall cease to have seniority, and shall have their name removed from the recall list.

However, if an employee's failure to report for work is on account of illness or injury, they may retain their seniority and recall rights if they have notified the Employer by registered mail and such notification is received prior to the deadline for their reporting to work. It is recognized that the Employer may require substantiation of the illness or injury. If the substantiation is not submitted promptly to the Employer, and if it is not to the satisfaction of the Employer, the loss of seniority and recall rights shall stand.

Recall rights for any employee shall expire eighteen (18) months ~~one (1) year~~ from the date of layoff. Written notice of expiration of recall rights shall be sent to the employee at their last known address by registered or certified mail.

ARTICLE XI - SELECTION OF JOBS

(ARTICLE APPLIES TO OPERATORS AND CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES; HOWEVER, THE CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE LANGUAGE IS AT THE END OF THE ARTICLE)

COACH AND VAN OPERATOR

- A. Coach Operators: All coach operators ~~and van operators~~ shall be able to select their jobs or extraboard positions in accordance with their bid seniority, provided the employee is qualified for the job or position for which they have bid. The coach extraboard will perform both coach and van extra work. An employee shall exercise their seniority right only once.

If ~~an~~ a coach operator is, or will be, on a paid or unpaid leave of absence or a medical related leave on the starting day of a new bid period, the operator is eligible to bid if a doctor can provide a specific return to work date during the bid period. If the operator cannot provide a specific return to work date that operator may not select a job. If the operator is later able to return to work during the bid period, the operator will be assigned to the extraboard in accordance with Article XII.A.2.

When an operator returns to work during a bid period and becomes assigned to the extraboard, the operator's extraboard assignment will be based upon the operator's seniority.

- B. Van Operators: All van operators shall be able to select their jobs in accordance with their bid seniority, provided the employee is qualified for the job position for which they have bid. An employee shall exercise their seniority right only once.

If a van operator is, or will be, on a paid or unpaid leave of absence or a medical related leave on the starting day of a new bid period, the operator is eligible to bid if a doctor can provide a specific return to work date during the bid period. If the operator cannot provide a specific return to work date that operator may not select a job. If the operator is later able to return to work during the bid period, a "bump" bid will be held.

- ~~CB.~~ The Employer shall post all full-time bid jobs, part-time bid jobs, driver paddles, changed schedules, and extraboard positions seven (7) calendar days prior to the start of the general bid selection. During the bidding period, the number of extraboard positions may be adjusted due to changes in the employee roster.

- ~~DC.~~ General bid selections shall be completed at least seven (7) calendar days prior to job implementation. The Employer shall schedule twenty (20) percent of the eligible employees to bid each day at an appointed time. The Employer will notify an employee of their appointed bid time at time of job posting. Employees will have a minimum of 15 minutes to bid. An employee may bid in person, by signed proxy, or by telephone or radio. The employee is responsible to contact the Employer within their appointed time in order to bid.

The employee shall bid by job number only, and the employee is responsible for understanding the contents of the job number. The Employer is responsible for providing accurate job contents at the time of job posting, and for providing accurate job number availability at the time of an employee's bid.

~~In the event the employee fails to bid at their appointed date and time, the Employer shall assign a bid to the employee. Such assigned bid shall be as similar as possible to the employee's current run. An employee may bid in person, by signed proxy, or by telephone or radio.~~

In the event an employee fails to bid at the appropriate date and time, the employee will bid after the last scheduled bid of that day and before the first scheduled bid of the next day. If the employee fails to bid by the first scheduled bid of the next day, their bid time will fall to the end of that day. This process continues to the end of the bid period.

ED.Jobs shall be posted quarterly for general bid. The Employer shall set the schedule for quarterly bids to accommodate service changes. In any case, no more than 120 days shall elapse between bids except by mutual consent. All general bids shall proceed in accordance with the established bid procedures. Jobs working demand response will be identified at the time of bid. The end times of these runs may be subject to extension by up to 30 minutes. The intent is to assure that the unanticipated needs of demand response customers can be met. Demand response runs will be reviewed by the Employer and the Union quarterly, prior to bid posting, to determine if the end times of any demand response runs should be adjusted for the next bid.

FE.When the Employer is made aware that a particular job(s) may be modified or canceled to coincide with the Legislative Session or other service considerations, it will be identified at the time of posting. If the job is modified, the affected operator may elect to work the modified schedule or go to the extraboard in accordance with their bid seniority for the duration of the quarterly bid.

If a change occurs or an error is discovered, which affects the job's report time or finish time by thirty (30) or more minutes on any one or more days, or which affects a job's weekly total hours or overtime by 150 or more minutes, without the notice at bid posting, an expedited new bid will take place provided there is more than thirty (30) days before the next quarterly bid is scheduled to go into effect.

GF.If only part-time jobs are left for bidding the operator will have the option of bidding the work or going to the extraboard. Any unbid part-time job will be considered extraboard work and assigned on a daily basis.

HG. When new ~~employees~~ coach operators complete their training, there will be a rebid process by seniority. The bid will start with the operator following the last bid operator on the extraboard. The number of extraboard slots will be expanded as necessary to accommodate the total number of new employees. The bid operator may elect to keep their current job or select a vacant job to include extraboard slots. This bid process will not involve a “bump” process.

When new van operators complete their training, there will be a rebid process by seniority beginning at the first open van assignment. New van operators will select from the remaining open van assignments.

IH. Any job that has been vacated for any reason shall be worked by the extraboard for the duration of the bid.

 - c. The organization wants exclusive use of the vehicle; service is private and not open to the public;
 - d. Service will take place entirely within the Employer’s service area; and
 - e. The Employer charges for the service.
2. The Employer will post a sign-up list for any operator who is interested in working the charter assignment. Selection for each assignment will be made on a strict seniority basis (combined coach and van) from among those who signed up. However, the following operators will not be eligible to sign-up:
 - a. Anyone whose shift overlaps with the hours of the charter assignment; and/or
 - b. Anyone whose next shift reports less than eight (8) hours after the end of the charter assignment.

3. Sign-ups will be on a purely voluntary basis; no bargaining unit member will be forced to take this charter work. In the event there are no volunteers, the Employer may assign non-bargaining unit employees to work the charter.
4. The Employer agrees to provide supervisory personnel on-duty during the entire duration of the charter assignment.
5. The Employer agrees to a two (2) hour minimum guarantee for all charter assignments.

KJ. REDUCED SERVICE BIDDING

1. Reduced service may be implemented on the following days: Martin Luther King Day, Presidents Day, Veterans Day, and the Friday after Thanksgiving (no less than the Saturday level of service), Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve may have modified ending times. Other days may be added upon the prior mutual agreement of the parties.
2. The level of service reduction for the year will be determined by the Employer and reviewed by the Union one (1) week prior to posting. The level of service reduction for the year will be ~~determined and posted at least two (2) weeks~~ one (1) week prior to the ~~reduced service days~~ regular vacation bid.
3. Operators will bid work by seniority via proxy forms. Those operators choosing not to work will still have to submit proxy forms designating whether they wish to use vacation time, floating holidays, or leave without pay (guarantee time will not be paid if the employee chooses leave without pay) ~~if no leave time is available.~~
The bidding priority will be:
 - a. Operators normally scheduled to work (List A).
 - b. Operators scheduled to be off work (List B).
 - c. If there are not enough volunteers from List A and List B, operators will be assigned in inverse seniority from List A.

Reduced service bidding is implemented by seniority. If there are not enough volunteers from List A and List B, operators will be assigned in inverse seniority from List A. This assignment will close the seniority bid process.

If an operator chooses, they may volunteer to "undraft" an operator assigned a run on a "first come, first serve basis", starting with the last operator "drafted".

4. Operators who are not scheduled to work and are asked to work will be paid in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act.

ARTICLE XI: CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE

- A. All Customer Service Representatives shall be able to select their jobs in accordance with their job classification (bid) seniority, provided the employee is available to work the job or position within thirty (30) calendar days of the bid. If a representative is out on medical leave at the time of the bid, a doctor's release stating the employee is likely to be released for duty within 30 days of the start of bid will be required in order to bid. An employee shall exercise their seniority right only once.
- B. In the event that the Employer hires more than one Lead Customer Service Representative, the Lead Customer Service Representatives will have separate work shifts from the other Customer Service Representatives. Seniority for bidding on these shifts will be based on length of service as a Lead Customer Service Representative.
- C. The Employer shall post all jobs seven (7) calendar days prior to the start of the general bid selection. The Employer will notify an employee of their appointed bid time of job posting. General bid selections shall be completed at least seven (7) calendar days prior to job implementation.

In the event a new shift option needs to be tested, the entire posting, bidding and implementation will be completed in a minimum of seven (7) calendar days.

- D. In the event the employee fails to bid at their appointed date and time, the Employer shall assign a bid to the employee. Such assigned bid shall be as similar as possible to the employee's current bid. An employee may bid in person, by signed proxy, or by telephone to the Supervisor of Customer Service.
- E. Jobs shall be posted for general bid two (2) times each calendar year. The Employer has the right to schedule additional general bids.
- F. If a shift is canceled, the affected employee may displace any other employee with less seniority.
- G. If an employee returns to work who is not eligible to bid at the previous general bid, they may displace any other employee with less seniority. Such returning employee shall be assigned a shift for up to fifteen calendar days or until a displacement bid is completed. Such displacement shall not constitute a general bid as defined in section E. above.
- H. If a Customer Service Representative terminates for any reason, all employees with less seniority will be permitted to bid on the vacancy created. The vacant shift may first however, be assigned to a Customer Service Representative by the Supervisor for up to 30 calendar days. In the event that there is more than one shift opening available at the same time, all employees, beginning with the first affected employee will be eligible to bid on all open shifts. A displacement bid shall not constitute a general bid defined in Section E. above.

ARTICLE XII - EXTRABOARD OPERATORS AND HOLD DOWNS

(THIS ARTICLE ONLY APPLIES TO OPERATORS)

A. EXTRABOARD OPERATORS

1. A single extraboard will be operated using Coach Operators. All work assignments left open by bid job operators or unassigned pieces of work shall be worked by the extraboard when available. Active extraboard operators shall have first right of refusal for this extra work; provided however:
 - a. overtime work for observed holidays shall be in accordance with the procedures defined under Article XIV - Personnel Benefits, C. Holiday Leave.
 - b. the Employer may offer work to part-time bid operators by seniority.
 - c. if no extraboard operator or part-time bid operator is available for open work, the work shall be offered by seniority to bid job operators who have signed up in the overtime book. If no extraboard operator is available and the overtime book is exhausted, the Employer may cover that work with any available operator.
2. Extraboard operators shall be granted two (2) regular days off per week. This shall be referred to as bid days off and will be selected by seniority. The bid days off shall remain in effect until another bid is held. The Employer shall determine the days off allotment posted for bid and may call a new days off bid when changing circumstances warrant.
3. If an extraboard operator is offered and accepts work on their bid day off, the overtime provisions of this Agreement will only apply for work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in the work week.
4. The Employer will post all active extraboard operators' work hours at the end of each week. The Employer will make every effort to equalize the active extraboard operator work hours on a weekly (Sunday through Saturday) basis. Hours worked on an employee's day off will not count in the equalization calculation.
5. The Employer guarantees a minimum of ~~thirty (30)~~ thirty-four (34) hours of work within the work week (exclusive of bid days off) to an extraboard operator; provided the extraboard operator is available for the work and accepts the work assignments.
6. Extraboard operators may be assigned other non-driving duties to maximize extraboard operators' hours and to meet the guarantee pay provisions as defined in this Agreement. Provided however, the Employer and the Union agree that if the non-driving assignment is maintenance in nature, the extraboard operator may decline the assignment.

7. The Employer will post work assignments for extraboard operators by 3:00 PM on the day preceding the work assignment. Every effort will be made to prevent any change of the scheduled work assignment beyond the 3:00 PM posting time. If an assigned run should become open after the posting time, it will be assigned in accordance with Section A. 1. of this Article.

B. HOLD DOWNS

1. For the purpose of this Agreement the following definitions shall apply:

A hold down is defined as any job or new bid assignment that is open for a full week (Sunday through Saturday), except for jobs that are bid as single days.

An active extraboard operator is any extraboard operator available for daily work assignments.

An inactive extraboard operator is any extraboard operator working a "hold down" assignment; such operator is not eligible for extra work assignments, except by overall seniority. (Extraboard internships - See Article XIII E.)

2. Extraboard operators bidding hold downs may bid by proxy for an available hold down. Bids shall be submitted no later than 4:00 PM on the Friday prior to the effective date of the hold down. Bids shall be awarded on a seniority basis. An extraboard operator awarded a hold down will be on inactive extraboard status and their hours worked will not be balanced with the active extraboard for the hold down week. The extraboard operator will automatically receive the days off of the hold down awarded and will be considered a bid job operator for pay purposes during the hold down.
3. Available hold down assignments will be posted on Monday by 10:00 AM and remain posted until 4:00 PM the following Friday. Any additional hold down assignments that become available between Monday and Friday noon will be posted as "late posting" and will be available for Friday's hold down bid. All hold downs become effective on the first day of the following work week.
4. Hold down bids will be awarded one week at a time. Results will be posted by 9:00 AM Saturday for the following work week. Hold downs not bid will be worked by the extraboard by way of daily work assignments.
5. An operator coming off a leave of absence shall reclaim their bid assignment at the beginning of the next pay week. In the interim the operator will be assigned to the extraboard with the operator receiving their regular bid days off. In the event the operator's bid assignment is not being worked by a hold down operator, they shall resume their bid assignment.

ARTICLE XIII - HOURS OF WORK, OVERTIME, SPREAD TIME, INCLEMENT WEATHER PAY, AND OTHER WORK ASSIGNMENTS

1. Operators shall be paid the applicable straight time driving rate for regularly scheduled work shifts. All regular bid jobs of thirty- five (35) or more hours per week with a minimum of ~~five (5)~~ four (4) days of work in a seven (7) day work week will be paid for forty (40) hours.

The Employer guarantees that at least seventy-five (75) percent of all regular bid jobs will be subject to the forty (40) hour guarantee.

The Employer guarantees that at least fifty (50) percent of the part-time jobs (less than 35 hours per week) will consist of one-hundred (100) or more hours per calendar month. Such jobs will be paid only for the actual time worked and benefits will be prorated in accordance with Article XIV - Personnel Benefits, A. Proration of Benefits.

The employee is required to notify the Employer at the start of their disability if the employee is electing to use accrued sick leave to supplement their earnings. Use of any paid sick leave will be calculated on a retroactive basis back to the first day in which the employee was off work due to the injury or illness, and the employee's available sick leave hours will be used until exhausted. An employee may not elect to use only a portion of their accrued sick leave; once the employee has elected to use paid sick leave to supplement their earnings, the election may not be reversed.

The employee shall make payment to the Employer in the manner prescribed by the Employer for such leave hours. Once the employee has made payment to the Employer for the total amount due based on the number of hours the employee has elected to buy back, the employee's leave hours will be added back to the employee's accrual records.

G. MILITARY LEAVE

1. Active Duty Training Requests:

An employee who is a member of the National Guard or the regular armed services of the United States shall be entitled to receive a military leave of absence with pay up to fifteen (15) work days each calendar year. Such leave shall be granted in order that the employee may take part in active military duty in such manner and at such time as he/she may be ordered to active duty. Military leave with pay shall be paid based on the employee's regularly scheduled work hours for the period of the active military duty and shall begin upon the employee's first day off request for said military leave.

In order to be eligible for paid military leave, the employee must submit a copy of his/her military orders inclusive of the dates of the military duty required of the employee; the orders must be received by the Employer prior to commencement of the leave. If the employee is unable to submit written orders at the time of their request for a military leave, the leave shall be granted as unpaid military leave. The leave will also not be paid if the employee does not return to their position on the next scheduled work day following the expiration of the period of duty.

2. Other Military Requests:

An employee may be granted military leave without pay for purposes of attending required weekend drills, voluntary training activities, or for long-term required military service. Written verification of such leave may be requested by the Employer.

H. JURY SERVICE LEAVE

An employee shall continue to receive their regular wages for any period of required service as a juror. A copy of the court notification for required jury service must be provided to the Employer. Employees will report for work when less than a normal work day is required by such duties.

I. LEAVES OF ABSENCE WITHOUT PAY

1. Non-Medical Related Leave (10 Days Maximum):

- a. An employee may be granted one, or more, non-medical related leave of absences without pay of up to ten (10) days per calendar year, at the discretion of the Employer.
- b. The employee shall not be required to use all earned vacation leave and floating holiday leave benefits prior to the above defined non-medical related leave of absence without pay.
- c. Personnel benefits shall not be prorated during the above defined non-medical related leave of absence without pay.

2. Non-Medical Related Leave (11 Days to 1 Year):

- a. An employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay for non-medical related reasons for a period not to exceed one (1) year, at the discretion of the Employer.
 - b. A non-medical related leave of absence without pay shall only be granted to the employee if the employee has used all earned vacation leave and floating holiday leave benefits.
 - c. Applicable personnel benefits shall be prorated during the non-medical related leave of absence without pay.
3. Medical Related Leave Without Pay (1 Day to 9 Months):
- a. An employee may be granted a medical leave of absence without pay for medical related reasons for a period not to exceed nine (9) months.
 - b. A medical related leave of absence without pay shall only be granted to the employee if the employee has used all accrued leave benefits to include accrued sick leave hours, accrued vacation leave hours (includes any hours previously bid for vacation slots), and accrued floating holidays. The medical leave of absence would be effective from the date of exhaustion of all accrued leave benefits. However, in cases where the employee was eligible for and used State or Federal family leave, the medical leave without pay would be effective from the date of exhaustion of the family leave.
 - c. If the employee is on a medical related leave of absence and is receiving worker's compensation from the State, the effective date of the nine (9) month medical leave of absence would be figured in the same way as if the employee was not receiving worker's compensation. This would apply whether or not the employee had elected to use paid leave hours to supplement the disability payments the employee was receiving from the State. The employee's available leave hours to include sick leave, vacation leave, pre-bid vacation hours, and floating holidays would be calculated at full rate (in the same manner as if the employee was not receiving worker's compensation) retroactive to the first day in which the employee was off work due to injury or illness; said calculation would continue until exhaustion of all accrued leave benefits. The medical leave of absence would be effective from the date of exhaustion of all accrued leave benefits. However, in cases where the employee was eligible for and used State or Federal family leave, the medical leave without pay would be effective from the date of exhaustion of the family leave.
 - d. Applicable personnel benefits shall be prorated during the medical related leave of absence without pay.

ARTICLE XIV: CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE

All eligible employees shall receive a percent of the Employer's normal contribution for monthly personnel benefits in accordance with the following schedule:

1. Insurance Coverage (medical/dental/life/disability):

- c. Leave benefits shall not be allowed during full calendar month leaves of absences without pay.

B. INSURANCE COVERAGE (medical/dental/life/disability):

All Customer Service Representatives shall be granted holiday pay in an amount equal to the employee's basic hourly rate of pay for eight (8) hours for each of the

It is understood that Customer Service Representative employees (lead and non-lead classifications) may be required to work on observed holidays.

2. Eligibility for Holiday Pay:

The employee will not be eligible for Observed Holiday pay if the employee is on approved leave without pay (LWOP) or LWOP due to exhaustion of accrued benefits on the employee's regularly scheduled work day prior to the holiday, the holiday, or the employee's regularly scheduled work day following the holiday.

An employee is eligible for holiday pay if a pre-approved medical appointment places the employee in LWOP.

An employee who receives a late report but shows up for and completes their work day, or an employee who selects to use leave without pay (LWOP) on a reduced service holiday, will continue to be eligible for holiday pay.

3. Holiday Service Bid

The Employer agrees to hold a general observed holiday work bid at least once each calendar year, if needed, for all employees. Employees will be able to select their observed holiday work in accordance with their individual division seniority, as defined in Article X-Customer Service section.

4. Floating Holidays

- a. Employees who are employed as of January 1 of each year and who are in active status, shall be entitled to five (5) non cumulative floating holidays per calendar year. Such floating holidays may be taken at any time during the year. Active status for the purposes of qualifying for five (5) floating holidays, is defined as being in paid status, including paid leave, during all or part of the fifteen (15) day time period beginning January 1 and ending January 15.

Operators, who do not qualify for five (5) floating holidays and return to work after January 15, shall be entitled to accrue floating holidays on their date of return to work per the following schedule. Such floating holidays will not be paid on a retroactive basis.

13- 16	152
17 or more	160

2. Employees will only accrue vacation leave benefits per their position classification as defined as full-time at 100%, 3/4 time at 75%, and 1/2 time at 50%.

Vacation accruals in excess of ~~three hundred (300)~~ three hundred twenty (320) hours shall be reduced to ~~three hundred (300)~~ three hundred twenty (320) hours by the Employer at the end of the pay period in which the excess accrual exceeds ~~three hundred (300)~~ three hundred twenty (320) hours.

5. The Employer will hold a general vacation bid at least once each calendar year. Prior to the vacation bid, the Employer will designate any weeks within the calendar year which would not be available for vacations due to service changes or heavy work load. The two (2) weeks prior to each service change and the week of the service change will not be available for vacations.
6. Employees will be able to select their vacation leave from the available weeks posted in accordance with their individual division seniority.
7. For bid purposes an employee may bid hours only actually earned at time of bid and may not bid hours on anticipated accruals. If an employee takes time off and does not have adequate vacation time to cover the complete day, a floating holiday will be used for the day instead of vacation time. If floating holiday time is not available, vacation hours would be used and the remaining time would be leave without pay.
8. A vacation week shall commence at 12:01 a.m. Sunday and end at 12:00 midnight Saturday.
9. There will be one (1) guaranteed vacation slot per day. Vacations may be bid in blocks of two (2) or more days. Partial day vacation requests will be considered as full days for awarding purposes. Remaining single days will be available for bid after the vacation bid is complete.
10. The vacation sign-up sheet will be posted in the Customer Service office seven (7) days prior to the bid. Bids may be submitted in writing on the Bid Time-Off Request form or in person on the vacation sign-up sheet.
11. Vacation weeks must be canceled by fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the scheduled start time of the vacation. Single day slots must be canceled by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday of the week prior.

14. After the bid is complete, open vacation and single days will be available on a first come, first serve seniority basis. Paid leave requests after the vacation bid may be submitted in writing on the standard Time-Off Request form for any open vacation slots during the bid period. The requests will be subject to availability and approval by the Customer Service Supervisor.

15. If a problem arises under this section, the Employer and the Union agree to meet and attempt to resolve the problem to the mutual benefit of the parties involved.

E. SICK LEAVE

For example, full-time employees will accumulate sick leave at a rate equivalent to eight (8) hours for each full month of service. Sick leave hours will be credited on a pay period basis. Sick leave accumulated in one (1) year may be carried over to succeeding years to a maximum of eight hundred (800) hours.
2. Sick leave shall not accrue during leaves of absences without pay or layoffs.

- f. In the event of the death of an employee's lawful spouse or designated other (as defined above), or the employee or spouse's father, mother, brother, sister, child, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, or uncle, the employee may be granted sick leave with pay for a maximum of three (3) working days; provided the employee has sufficient sick leave accrued. Additional leave (vacation leave, floating holidays, or leave without pay) may be granted where circumstances warrant. Family member terms apply equally to natural, step, or foster family relationships. Verification of death may be required by the Employer. Such verification shall be in the form of a published funeral notice, obituary, or copy of death certificate.
 - g. Family Leave - State or Federal Law: In addition to the above, an employee is eligible to request unpaid time-off under Washington State's Family Leave Law (child related care) or the Federal Medical Leave Act (FMLA) (employee, child or family member related care). Written notice of the intent to take family must be provided to the Employer thirty (30) days before the anticipated first day of the leave, unless an emergency exists. The employee is required to submit doctor certification, on approved Employer provided forms, for all time off associated with Family Leave.
4. When an employee is absent due to illness, they must notify the Employer immediately, failure do so may result in denial of sick leave pay.

The employee may be required to submit to the Employer medical evidence of their disability from a licensed medical doctor or any other satisfactory evidence, if requested by the Employer, in order to receive sick leave pay.

The Employer will not be liable for any expenses incurred resulting from the verification of disability by a physician or any other satisfactory source of evidence.

5. Absence for part of a day for reasons in accordance with the sick leave provisions shall be charged against accrued sick leave in an amount not less than one-half (1/2) hour. Holidays and other regular days off shall not be charged against sick leave.
6. Probationary employees shall be eligible to accrue and use paid sick leave.
7. Sick Leave Cash Out/Trade Policy
- a. Cash Out at Separation of Employment or Retirement:

Upon separation of employment or retirement, under non-disciplinary circumstances and with completion of at least five (5) years of employment with the Employer, each employee shall be paid for all accumulated sick leave at the following rate:

Hours of Accrued Sick Leave	Cash Out Rate
0 to 400	1 to 5 for hours 1 to 400
401 to 600	1 to 4 for hours 1 to 600
601 to 800	1 to 3 for hours 1 to 800

The requirement for the completion of five (5) years of employment with the Employer will be waived if the employee is laid off.

b. Sick Leave Trade: Employees who have accrued in excess of four hundred (400) hours of sick leave may annually in June exercise one of the following options for hours in excess of four hundred (400) hours:

1. Trade four (4) hour increments of sick leave for one (1) hour of vacation.
2. Continue to accrue sick leave.
3. Trade four (4) hour increments of sick leave for one (1) hour of pay.

Employees will be allowed to trade up to ninety-six (96) hours of sick leave each year.

c. All pay for sick leave cash out or trade shall be at the employee's regular, straight-time rate of pay at the time of the cash out or trade.

8. On-The-Job-Injury (Worker's Compensation)

If an employee is absent due to illness or injury for which they are receiving payment from the State Industrial Insurance, the employee may use only the number of accrued sick leave hours that, together with such payment from the State, would not represent more than eighty (80) percent of the employee's regular wages.

The employee is required to notify the Employer at the start of their disability if the employee is electing to use accrued sick leave to supplement their earnings. Use of any paid sick leave will be calculated on a retroactive basis back to the first day in which the employee was off work due to the injury or illness, and the employee's available sick leave hours will be used until exhausted. An employee may not elect to use only a portion of their accrued sick leave; once the employee has elected to use paid sick leave to supplement their earnings, the election may not be reversed.

Upon exhaustion of accrued sick leave, the employee may elect to use, in the same manner as defined above, other accrued leave hours (vacation leave and floating holiday leave) retroactive to date of exhaustion of paid sick leave; provided however, the employee may not elect to use other paid leave hours unless the sick related time off extends beyond seven (7) consecutive days. Such available leave hours will be used until exhausted. An employee may not elect to use only a portion of such accrued leaves; once the employee has elected to use other paid leave hours the election may not be reversed.

Upon return to work from a worker's compensation leave period, an employee may elect to purchase back all or a portion of the leave hours that were used and paid to the employee during the employee's disability period. The employee must notify the Employer of their intent to buy back paid leave hours; such notification must be made to the Employer within thirty (30) days from the date upon which the employee returns to work from the disability. The employee shall make payment to the Employer in the manner prescribed by the Employer for such leave hours. Once the employee has made payment to the Employer for the total amount due based on the number of hours the employee has elected to buy back, the employee's leave hours will be added back to the employee's accrual records.

9. Shared Leave Policy

Employees may participate in the Shared Leave Policy adopted by the Employer on December 1, 1999. This policy allows eligible employees to donate a portion of their accrued vacation leave to other eligible employees who are in need of assistance due to serious illness or injury.

F. MILITARY LEAVE

1. Active Duty Training Requests:

An employee who is a member of the National Guard or the regular armed services of the United States shall be entitled to receive a military leave of absence with pay up to fifteen (15) work days each calendar year. Such leave shall be granted in order that the employee may take part in active military duty in such manner and at such time as he/she may be ordered to active duty. Military leave with pay shall be paid based on the employee's regularly scheduled work hours for the period of the active military duty and shall begin upon the employee's first day off request for said military leave.

In order to be eligible for paid military leave, the employee must submit a copy of his/her military orders inclusive of the dates of the military duty required of the employee; the orders must be received by the Employer prior to commencement of the leave. If the employee is unable to submit written orders at the time of their request for a military leave, the leave shall be granted as unpaid military leave. The leave will also not be paid if the employee does not return to their position on the next scheduled work day following the expiration of the period of duty.

2. Other Military Requests:

An employee may be granted military leave without pay for purposes of attending required weekend drills, voluntary training activities, or for long-term required military service. Written verification of such leave may be requested by the Employer.

G. JURY SERVICE LEAVE

An employee shall continue to receive their regular wages for any period of required service as a juror. A copy of the court notification for required jury service must be provided to the Employer. Employees will report for work when less than a normal work day is required by such duties.

- a. An employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay for non-medical related reasons for a period not to exceed one (1) year, at the discretion of the Employer.
- b. A non-medical related leave of absence without pay shall only be granted to the employee if the employee has used all earned vacation leave and floating holiday leave benefits.

- c. Applicable personnel benefits shall be prorated during the non-medical related leave of absence without pay.
3. Medical Related Leave Without Pay (1 Day to 9 Months):

The medical leave of absence would be effective from the date of exhaustion of all accrued leave benefits. However, in cases where the employee was eligible for and used State or Federal family leave, the medical leave without pay would be effective from the date of exhaustion of the family leave.
 - c. If the employee is on a medical related leave of absence and is receiving worker's compensation from the State, the effective date of the nine (9) month medical leave of absence would be figured in the same way as if the employee was not receiving worker's compensation. This would apply whether or not the employee had elected to use paid leave hours to supplement the disability payments the employee was receiving from the State. The employee's available leave hours to include sick leave, vacation leave, pre-bid vacation hours, and floating holidays would be calculated at full rate (in the same manner as if the employee was not receiving worker's compensation) retroactive to the first day in which the employee was off work due to injury or illness; said calculation would continue until exhaustion of all accrued leave benefits. The medical leave of absence would be effective from the date of exhaustion of all accrued leave benefits. However, in cases where the employee was eligible for and used State or Federal family leave, the medical leave without pay would be effective from the date of exhaustion of the family leave.
 - d. Applicable personnel benefits shall be prorated during the medical related leave of absence without pay.

The employees shall be covered by this deferred compensation plan unless the Employer is required to contribute additional FICA (Federal Insurance Contributions Act) employee contribution matches. It is agreed that these amounts will offset the Employer's contributions as defined above.

The provisions of this section shall only apply to an employee electing to make contributions to the same deferred compensation plan in an amount equal to, or more than, the Employer's contribution as defined above. The Employer shall have no obligation to contribute to the deferred compensation plan for employees who fail to contribute to the plan, or for those employees who choose to contribute less than the established Employer contribution amount as defined above.

Once each calendar year, employees will have the opportunity to change which of the deferred compensation plans, established by the Employer, they participate in.

Should the Employer refuse to accept the employee's medical release, the employee shall be required to undergo an examination by the Employer selected physician as soon as an appointment can be scheduled by the Employer.

4. Examination Review

Should any Employer required physical examination reveal the employee is unqualified to perform their assigned work, they may, at their option, have a review of their case in the following manner:

- a. Within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the employee's notification that they are unqualified to perform their assigned work, the employee may employ a physician of their choosing, at their own expense, for the purpose of conducting a further examination for the same purpose as the physical examination made by the Employer selected physician. A copy of the findings of the physician chosen by the employee involved shall be furnished to the Employer. In the event that such findings verify the findings of the Employer selected physician, no further medical review of the case shall be afforded.
- b. In the event there is a difference of opinion relative to the diagnosis between the Employer's examining physician and the physician chosen by the employee, a physician shall be mutually designated by the Employer's physician and the employee's physician. The mutually designated physician's decision relative to the diagnosis shall be final and binding as to the physical and mental fitness of the employee to perform the work of the position which the employee is employed in. Should the mutually designated physician rule in favor of the employee, the employee shall be allowed to return to work.

The costs incurred for the mutually designated physician's examination shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union.

E. EMPLOYEE UNIFORMS

The Employer shall furnish each new operator with a complete set of uniforms. Upon issue of new uniforms, the Employer shall implement a voucher process for the payment of replacement uniforms for each operator; the amount will be $150 per
